

Smt. Nita Sukumar

Smt. Nita Sukumar is working as Scientific Assistant at NCESS, Trivandrum. She is involved with the works in the Electronics & Instrumentations Lab. Her significant contribution includes the installation of two field stations in Western Ghats – Cloud Physics Observatory, Braemore (380m ASL) and High altitude Cloud Physics Observatory, Munnar (1830 mASL). She is also responsible of installation works of lightning protection (Ring Conductor) at both sites. She is very sincere to her duties and very systematic within short period she could become part of number of Publications. She is always prepared to take up any responsibilities.

Ms. Nazira Begum

Ms. Nazira Begum is working as a Scientific Assistant at NCAOR, Goa since 2013. She is well versed with principles of chromatography and handles both HPLC and TLC independently providing quality data on various aspects of productivity and taxonomy of flora in Arctic fjords. This facilitated numerous publications and scientific reports. She is also responsible for arranging logistics for Arctic team movements. Her skills to adopt to challenging situations, quick assessment and proactive nature have proved to be very effective in the success of Indian Arctic Program.

Sh. Anemi Lakshmana Rao

Sh. Anemi Lakshmana Rao is an Assistant Manager (Finance and Accounts) at NCAOR, Goa looking after as a Cashier, and efficiently handled cash and bank accounts of NCAOR. He is also responsible for all kinds of T.D.S, Preparation and issue of Form 16 and 16A to all employees of NCAOR and various types of contractors, taking utmost responsibility to comply the due dates as per various sections of Income Tax Act. Checking of Payments & Receipts and Ledgers, Checking and accounting of Payment Vouchers, Journal Vouchers, Cheques etc. also part of his activities at NCAOR.