
Shri. Jawaharlal Das

Shri. Jawaharlal Das joined the Regional Meteorological Centre, Mumbai as Upper Divisional Clerk on 19.07.13. He is the official care taker for R.M.C. Mumbai, and manages the work very efficiently. He is systematic and maintains all office records, along with the correspondence, and has successfully carried out all assigned works by office. The work includes processing the cases on GEM and perusing the cases with HQ, especially outsourcing. He personally involves himself, in any office event organized by the office, right from the arrangement, till the conclusion of the event almost independently and is very resourceful person. He actively initiates, all the arrangements required for World Meteorological Day Celebrations. He is willing to take additional responsibility, as and when the situation demands and has successfully carried out. He has actively organised Swachata Abhayan related activities of RMC Mumbai, and uses his own sense of creativity, for making the required arrangements for the office. The feedback received from the visitors staying in Guest House for all the required arrangements has always been Very Good. He ensures that the required essential facilities are made available to Guest with the help from office. TV with cable connectivity, Wi-Fi in the Guest House etc has been his recent initiatives. He supervises works of the contingent mazdoors and personally checks the compound and office areas for cleanliness. Mr J Das, has received Appreciation Letters for his dedicated works from DDGM RMC Mumbai. During the lockdown, has showed exemplary, spirit by getting done, sanitizing the office premises, and the quarters, despite shortage of man-power. A very Hardworking, humble and highly disciplined official of RMC Mumbai.