
Smt. Sheela Abraham

Smt. Sheela Abraham, Scientific Assistant, joined in the year 1997 at IMD, Pune Office. She is a post graduate in Computer Applications, and is further, pursuing her, M.Sc. in Information Technology. Sheela Abraham joined R.M.C. Mumbai office in 2003. She has worked in RWFC, Information Technology section and is currently working in Regional Communication Section at RMC Mumbai. She is managing the Networking related work, and troubleshooting the entire network connectivity in case of network failure, at R.M.C. Mumbai, single-handedly. She is the System Administrator for Synergie Forecasting System at R.M.C. Mumbai. The technical support for the Video wall system, and Video-conferencing facility, is managed by her efficiently. She has conducted the Hand held data logger training for synoptic data entry at M.C. AHMEDABAD. During Covid -19, emergency, she single-handedly managed the entire network, during network failure and ensured smooth internet connectivity, for both operational and non operational work even during odd hours. During Covid -19, lockdown period, she repaired the computers, retrieved the computer data during disk failure and installed windows operating system as and when required, and ensured smooth functioning of the computers. She effectively managed the hardware and software problems, related to the computers, printers, scanners and plotters in office. During Covid 19, lockdown period, the setup for conducting the assessment interviews at R.M.C. Mumbai, through video-conferencing was effectively managed by her. During the network failure, configures the router and the switches for managing the network efficiently. Adapted to new technology networking systems and can assist in any Information Technology, related sphere of work well. She takes initiative and is proactive for the implementation of any new initiative and is always willing to take higher responsibilities. Ms Sheela Abraham, SA has actively taken part in WMO Exhibitions and other outreach programs of RMC Mumbai very effectively and a very active member of IMS Mumbai Chapter.