

Mrs. Naga Swetha

Mrs. Naga Swetha joined INCOIS as Scientific Assistant B at Hyderabad on 23 August 2007 and from then she is responsible for Operational Generation and Dissemination of the PFZ and Tuna advisories, Development of GIS based models for automation of the process chains, Development of user base for smooth dissemination of the services, Assist scientists in R & D activities towards development of species-specific advisories and other improvement related activities in the advisory services. She quickly grasps the concepts and completes the work as per requirements. Ms. Swetha has proactively taken up initiatives in developing the android based mobile application for the dissemination of PFZ Advisories and made it operational. Ms. Swetha has designed and implemented the Automatic Frontal Detection (AFD) system for the generation of PFZ advisories. Ms. Swetha was also instrumental in developing various GIS models for automation of the process of retrieval of various parameters. Ms. Swetha has designed an integrated User database for the dissemination of ocean information services through SMS. Ms. Swetha was one of the active members involved during the development and operationalisation of the Tuna fishery advisories services by INCOIS.

Smt. N.N. Lavanya

Smt. N.N. Lavanya JUNIOR ASSISTANT, FINANCE AND ACCOUNTS, NIOT Chennai, Post Graduate in mathematics from Madurai Kamaraj University with more than 18 years of experience in Administration and Finance. Her knowledge in the verification of the consultancy project proposals of NIOT, filing of statutory returns, UCs and payments through PFMS modules had been handy for NIOT. As a personal assistant in the Director's secretariat, she exhibited her exemplary secretarial skills while coordinating the meetings of High Signatories, VVIPs and members of the Governing Councils and associated with ISO Quality policies of related to retrieval of records at Director's Secretariat. A self-motivated individual leaves no stone unturned till the objectives are achieved.

Shri Yogesh S. Belgude

Shri Yogesh S. Belgude has worked as Purchase officer. Supervised work related to Procurement which includes supply and maintenance of indigenous and imported stores and services, execution of maintenance contract. He often shows higher degree of commitment and resourcefulness. He accepts higher responsibilities with aplomb and dignity. He has also worked as Establishment and General Administration In charge. Served in various committees for organising seminars and conferences. He has very thorough knowledge of the rules and regulations and purchase procedures. Excellent knowledge in theoretical and technical aspects of the projects involved and he constantly updates his skills.