

Key objectives:

The Ministry of Earth Sciences (MoES), under the Government of India, is mandated to provide services for weather, climate, ocean and coastal state, hydrology, seismology, and natural hazards; to explore and harness marine living and non-living resources in a sustainable manner and to explore the three poles of the Earth (Arctic, Antarctic and Himalayas).

Duties of MoES:

The Ministry of Earth Sciences (MoES), under the Government of India, is providing services for weather, climate, ocean and coastal state, hydrology, seismology, and natural hazard; to explore and harness marine living and non-living resources in a sustainable manner and to explore the three poles of the Earth (Arctic, Antarctic and Himalayas).